Word of Life

“Without a foundational, practical formation, it is difficult for our consciences to guide us well in concrete situations. As Catholics, we have the immense gift of the teaching authority of the Catholic Church and can turn to it for help forming our consciences. For example, learning about Christian moral principles, reading the Catechism of the Catholic Church, or researching what the Church says about a challenging teaching will help us grow in knowledge of the truth.”
USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, “Understanding Conscience”

For those in public office: May they work to enact laws that protect and safeguard the gift of human life;
We pray to the Lord

Sunday Reflection

A kitschy Catholic saying, “It doesn’t matter what the question is. The answer is Jesus,” seems ridiculous on the surface, but it’s truth can be found with only a little examination, echoing Jesus’ declaration in John’s Gospel.

*FORMED****

Formed this week!
Saint Joseph (4-part Series): De. Ben Akers & Taylor Kemp sit down to reflect on the earthly father chosen by the heavenly Father for his Son, Jesus Christ. This four-part series compares the Joseph of the New Testament to the Joseph of the Old Testament, examines St. Joseph’s title as the “Guardian of the Redeemer,” and considers why he is the patron of the universal Church and the domestic church.
Motherhood Like Mary: Sonja Corbitt shows how moms can model their motherhood after the Blessed Mother. She shares practical tips for following Our Lady and looking to the Holy Family for guidance.
Mary of Nazareth: an epic motion picture on the life of Mary Mother of Christ, from her childhood through the Resurrection of Jesus.

Dynamic Catholic Alive!

The Way, the Truth, and the Life

How do we know the way to God the Father? Only because Jesus has shown it to us by His life on earth, His Passion, death, and Resurrection. How do we know that Jesus is the Truth? Because all He said and prophesied came to pass. He is faithful to His promises. How is Jesus the Life? Building upon last week’s Gospel, because we can truly live only by obeying His commandments and walking with Him in humility. In the world today, in which philosophies, ideologies, and political agendas do everything but lead us to the truth and show us how to live, Jesus gives us the simple solution. How do we know what to do and how to live our lives in a fallen world? Because Jesus has shown us and told us that the one who trusts in Him shall not be put to shame (Isaiah 28:16, Romans 10:11).

Congratulations!

May is the Month of Mary. During this Month of Mary, let us think about Mary and her love for all of us and her love for God our Father. She was so unapologetic in Her Yes to God and we remind ourselves of this Yes that she so willingly said and knew that God’s plan for her was steadfast and true.

Mary’s message April 25, 2023: “Dear children! I am calling all of you to be carriers of the peace and joy of the risen Jesus for all those who are far from prayer; that the love of Jesus, through your lives, may transform them to a new life of conversion and holiness. Thank you for having responded to my call.”
